

Minnesota Rabbinical Association

Says Vote No to Proposed Marriage Amendment

The Minnesota Rabbinical Association (MRA), made up of 35 rabbis and 15 synagogues and institutions representing the majority of the Jewish population of the state of Minnesota, adopted a statement on January 18, 2012, opposing the proposed amendment to the Minnesota constitution which would recognize marriage only as a union between a man and a woman.

The amendment initiative is slated to be on the ballot on November 6, 2012.

The MRA's decision to oppose this amendment is based on two principles within Jewish text: Kavod HaBriyot and Lo ta-amod al dam rei-echa.

Kavod HaBriyot is the concept of individual honor or human dignity. As rabbis, we believe that all human beings are created in the image of God and deserve to be treated with dignity and respect.

The Minnesota state constitution attempts to protect the rights of our citizens rather than to deny community has faced discrimination, and therefore we will not stand by while others are targeted. As it says in Lev. 19:16 Lo ta-amod al dam rei-echa: Do not stand idly by as your neighbor bleeds.

Below is the proposed amendment to the Minnesota Constitution that would only recognize marriage as a union between one man and one woman.

The MRA cannot condone using the constitution to deny civil rights. As rabbis, we embrace the diversity of God's creation. The MRA unanimously opposes this amendment and urges all Minnesotans of conscience and faith to Vote No on November 6, 2012.
